This policy relates ONLY to those sections which are shown in the schedule as being included and each home included under this insurance is considered to be covered as if separately insured.

- For valuables, antiques and works of art, gold and silver – the current market value.

You must notify your broker

- As soon as reasonably possible if you become aware that information you have given us is inaccurate;
- within 14 days of you becoming aware of any changes in the information you have provided to us which happen before or during the period of insurance;
- at least 30 days before you start any work to extend, renovate, build or demolish any part of the buildings, or any work involving the use of heat, where the contract value is more than £100,000;
- if you make any changes that will downgrade the security or fire protections at your home;
- if you stop using your home as your permanent home; or
- if you regularly leave your home unoccupied or regularly leave your home unattended at night.

When we are notified that information you previously provided is inaccurate, or of any changes to that information, or of planned building works, we will tell you if this affects your insurance. For example, we may amend the terms of your insurance or require you to pay more for your insurance or cancel your insurance in accordance with “Other Important Information – How to cancel this insurance” on page 5.

If you fail to notify us that information you have provided is inaccurate, or you fail to notify us of any changes, this insurance may become invalid and we may not pay your claim, or any payment could be reduced.

Information you have given us

We have relied on the information you have given us. You must take care when answering any questions we ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If we establish that you deliberately or recklessly provided us with false or misleading information we will treat this insurance as if it never existed and decline all claims.

If we establish that you carelessly provided us with false or misleading information it could adversely affect your insurance and any claim. For example we may:

- treat this insurance as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium paid. We will only do this if we provided you with insurance cover which we would not otherwise have offered; or
- amend the terms of your insurance. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place from the start of the period of insurance; or
- reduce the amount we pay on a claim in the proportion the premium you have paid bears to the premium we would have charged you; or

- if you regularly leave your home unoccupied/unattended at night.

When we are notified that information you previously provided is inaccurate, or of any changes to that information, we will tell you if this affects your insurance. We may, with your prior agreement, offer to renew your policy automatically. This would mean you do not need to confirm your intention to renew before this policy ends.

Where you have stated that you wish to have automatic renewal for your policy and change your mind at a later date, please inform your broker who will update your renewal preference. If your policy is not renewed automatically all cover will cease after the renewal date unless a written instruction to renew has been received prior to the day of policy renewal.

How to cancel this insurance

During the cooling off period

You may cancel this insurance within 14 days:

- of buying this insurance or
 - of the day on which you receive the insurance documents,
- whichever is later, by writing to your broker. We will provide a full refund of the premium paid unless you have made a claim on this insurance. We can decide not to refund any premium if you have made a claim or there has been an event that could result in a claim being made on this insurance.

After the cooling off period

If you cancel this insurance outside the cooling off period, provided you have not made a claim, or there has not been an event that could result in a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for the time for which you have been covered. If we pay any claim, in whole or in part, then no refund of premium will be allowed.

We may cancel this insurance where there is a valid reason by giving you 30 days' notice in writing. We will only do this for a valid reason. Examples of valid reasons are as follows:

- Non-payment of premium;
- A change in risk occurring which means that we can no longer provide you with insurance cover;
- Non-cooperation or failure to supply any information or documentation we request;
- Failure to comply with your duties under "Important Information - Your Duties" on page 3;
- Failure to inform us of changes to information provided by you on your proposal form/statement of fact;
- Failure to implement changes that have been requested by us;
- We establish that you have provided us with incorrect information;
- and
- You breach any terms and conditions of your policy.

Any refund of premium due to you will depend on how long this insurance has been in force. For example, if you have been covered for six months, the deduction for the time you have been covered will be half the annual premium.

Important Note

The Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 sets out situations where failure by a policyholder to provide complete and accurate information requested by an insurer allows the insurer to cancel this policy, sometimes back to its start date, and to keep any premiums paid.
