

Protect your home from water damage

With a nearly 1 in 20 chance of experiencing an escape of water claim in your lifetime, and 21,700 such claims reported in 2023, water damage is a very real risk.

While the destruction from a major leak is often evident, unidentified slow leaks can cause just as much, if not more, hidden damage.

For over 60 years, Polygon has been a trusted expert in restoring homes affected by water damage and safeguarding them against future issues. Now, we're offering Water Damage Prevention, a smart, hassle-free solution to keep your home safe from costly surprises.

The average cost of water damage is £12,791 per claim—how much would a leak cost you?
